

AI App Dev Event Participant Instructions

1. Event Overview

Participants will work in teams to design and develop a functional application based on a given idea.

A total development time of 6 hours will be provided.

2. Idea Selection Process

A list of 10 problem statements/ideas will be announced at the start of the event.

Each team must select one idea and report their selection to the management within 1 hour.

Constraint:

- A maximum of 8 teams can select the same idea.
- Selection will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.

3. Development Phase

After idea selection, teams will begin working on their applications.

Participants are allowed to use AI tools and access the internet for research and development.

All work must be done solely by the team members.

4. Evaluation Criteria

On-site evaluation will begin after 5 hours of development.

Judges/teachers will visit each team's workspace to conduct a basic assessment of progress, concept understanding, and implementation approach.

5. Submission Requirements

Project requirements every team must have to follow are:

- README.md
- Requirements / Dependencies
- Setup & Run Guide
- Clean Folder Structure
- Environment Configuration (.env)
- Version Control (GitHub Practices)
- Documentation
- A 5-minute screen recording demonstrating the working of your application, with a clear voice-over explanation of features and functionality.

6. Technical Requirements

Each team must bring their own laptops.

Participants must arrange a backup internet source.

7. Code of Conduct

Teams must not seek or accept help from industry professionals or external individuals.

Only registered team members are allowed to contribute.

Violation will result in immediate disqualification.

8. Refund Policy

Participants requesting a refund must contact management before 11:59 PM.

Requests after the deadline will not be entertained.

9. Final Note

This event is designed to test creativity, problem-solving skills, and teamwork under time constraints.

Participants are encouraged to collaborate effectively and build impactful solutions. Teams are requested to follow the given timeline
